

In-principle supervision form for Honours, MSc and PhD research projects.

Evidence of in principle support for your application is required for your course application. You must either upload a short email from your supervisor specifically stating that they agree to provide in-principle support for your application or ask them to sign this completed form at section B below, and then you need to upload it to your application.

Supervisors must be located within the Faculty and School to which you apply. Please confirm with your prospective supervisor the course that you will need to apply for.

A. Applicant to complete:

Applicant name
Application Number (if known)
Student number (if known)
Applicant course details (Honours, MSc, PhD)
School applied for

B. Supervisor to complete:

Supervisor name (please print)

.....

School of.....

I agree to provide in-principle support for the applicant listed above (section A).

Supervisor Signature

(digital signature accepted)

Date.....

Supervisor additional comments, if applicable. example: research topic, co-supervisor names or funding.

Please attach the completed form to your online application under the Preferred Supervisor application requirement.

Please note the following:

- Your application will be placed on hold if this form is incomplete. This may delay the assessment of your application.
- If you have not yet have support from a supervisor, you can contact potential supervisors in your area of interest using Find an Expert <https://findanexpert.unimelb.edu.au/>